REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Members of the Marlow School Board:

Money borrowed from the state aid account during the period of chairmanship of Rev. Herbert A. Cooper of Marlow School Board was repaid to the state during the fiscal year of 1923-1924 and created the temporary shortage of funds with which you dealt in the budget presented last March.

By conference with Mr. Wallace E. Mason of the Keene Normal School, cadet teachers were secured by you to bridge over the "lean" financial year. The superintendent believes that the plan you followed saved the town a heavy drain on its finances, and it certainly gave to the children of Marlow far better teaching than could otherwise have been secured.

The specified recommendation of chemical toilets for the Marlow school, large tanks being sunk into the ground at the rear of the building, with direct connections from the inside of the school rooms to the toilets, will sooner or later be adopted by the Marlow citizens, as soon as the need for them becomes more generally apparent.

Much credit is due to the teacher of the grammar grades, Mrs. M. Alice Douglas, for her work in beautifying the interior of the grammar room.

We have been most fortunate in the transportation from the remote district toward Lempster. Mr. Murdough has continued the excellent and thoughtful transportation schedule. This route will, I am certain, sooner or later be covered by automobile, and thus the children will be saved considerable time.

The progressive attitude of the school board is always apparent. The upper grades are slowly developing, but very surely, into the work of junior schools. In the lower grades, improvement in reading methods has brought about an almost unbelievable improvement. It is only with difficulty that one believes the results of tests and the practical evidence of daily work. These lower grades should be given still more readers of the Elson type. But the equipping must be done economically, and spread over a period of at least three years.

Map equipment should be increased by the addition of a few more physiographical maps for the lower grades.

The problem of school attendance and tardiness is still with us. It is to be hoped that local organizations, already in existence, will do their part in emphasizing the need for a full year of attendance by all children, as part of the regular programs in their halls.

The superintendent again desires to express the appreciation of the splendid co-operation and friendliness shown to him by school board and townspeople.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD

The following is the report of the Marlow school board for the fiscal year ending July 1, 1924, and is not expected to include the report of the school work now in progress, but, with all our efforts to keep to what occurred before last July, we find that some items occurring since will creep in, as was the case last year, when mention was made of improvements in form of adjustable window shades and sanitary drinking fountains, both of which come into the expenses reported this year, and would have been our chief improvements.

The teachers and pupils have through entertainments screened the doors and windows of the grammar room.

Mrs. L. Alice Douglas did the work in the grammar room in her usual efficient and pleasing manner. Miss Edna Friehofer was a charming and efficient teacher in the primary room, but ill-health prevented her from completing the year's work and four substitutes did as well as it was possible for them to do, each teaching from one to three weeks.

Unexpected expenses made it necessary for us to draw on the appropriation for next year, and this act will seriously cramp our finances for that year.

The work of the schools is supervised by Supt. Chase, whose worth to the schools, we fear, is not generally appreciated because not understood.

We still need the co-operation of parents, whose presence occasionally in the school rooms would be a source of encouragement to teachers and pupils and an aid to themselves in judging of the value of the work done.

We regret that before the end of one year Mrs. Lillian Corey was obliged to resign and another member, Albert W. Phelps, was appointed to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

The budget proper could not be printed in this report, because the state board had not completed its work of apportioning the aid for us.

Respectfully submitted,

SARA E. PHELPS,
ALBERT W. PHELPS,
IVAN HUNTLEY,

School Board.
